| EN-71 | Engineering | Biomedical            | Joyce M. Evans Excellence in Service Award  | Recognition of a Biomedical Engineering student who exemplifies outstanding BME-related extracurricular activities performed by biomedical engineering students. The Evans Award for Excellence in Service is named in honoring Joyce M. Evans. Joyce is a retired senior research associate of the F. Joseph Halcomb III, M.D. Department of Biomedical Engineering (BME) who has been a fixture of the BME Department and its predecessor, the Center for BME, for almost 50 years. Over these years, Joyce has made crucial contributions in pioneering discoveries about the effect of space travel on the cardiovascular system as well as musculoskeletal dynamics to support NASA's space exploration programs. Additionally, Joyce exemplified the true meaning of touching people's lives through her selfless service. Her steady guidance, unrelenting support, and ability to see potential in trainees before they themselves realized it, have helped make trainees future leaders. Among these leaders is F. Joseph Halcomb, III, M.D., the benefactor of the BME department. | To recognize the outstanding extracurricular activities performed by biomedical engineering students, with emphasis on activities related to the society and biomedical engineering profession. | Students who have made a great impact on advancing the mission of the BME department through their leadership and engagement in extracurricular activities including but not limited to organizing education, social, career development events; leading and participating in BME-related outreach activities; serving/volunteering in BME-related professional societies or conferences; impact of the nominee's extracurricular activities on the BME community. | Engraved Plaque                    | up to $50  | General Funds  | 3/20/2020  | Dean, Provost | $50  |
